

Khristi English, MSA, BAA

President

Khristi, a Detroit native acquired both her Bachelor's of Applied Arts in Apparel Merchandising and Design (2003) and her Master's of Science in Human Resource Administration (2014) from Central Michigan University—Fire Up Chips! Her professional background includes retail management, with an emphasis on Best Practices in customer service. A majority of her career has been in the nonprofit sector. The most rewarding aspect of her career has been managing the Volunteer Services Department at Focus: HOPE where she has supported over 50,000 volunteers in the past 7 years. Prior to working in the Volunteer Department, she was a recruiter in the Workforce Development and Education Department also at Focus: HOPE. Khristi is an active Board Member of Miller-Carr Human Services, and is an "rom-com" enthusiast.

Khristi's totem is a lighthouse. Khristi says, "Lighthouses endure the elements, they stand strong, but above all, they are the light that guides people to safety. Which is relatable in many areas especially in the nonprofit sector," serving others is an honor and a joy (which is also her middle name). Khristi is flexible, willing to go the extra mile, and treat others with the human respect everyone deserves.

Khristi was recently married in September 2021 to, through her marriage, have 3 children who she loves and truly adores and 2 dogs, all add to the undoubtable happiness she feels everyday.
